

This document contains release notes for Version 4.2 of FOIAonline, for release after Close of Business (COB) on January 14th, 2021. This document provides a summary of the bug fixes and other updates contained in the release.

Enhancements

- Added sorting to the Records tab of a case file. Release type is sorted alphabetically. The exact number of total records is displayed and rows returned to the user are the only ones shown.

Bug Fixes

- Fixed issue where custom field selections would not populate in the Advanced Search export.
- Fixed issue where an error would display in the Monthly Report when choosing the month of December.
- Fixed issue where Final Disposition Notices tasks would display errors when trying to get supporting files.
- Fixed issue where registered users were able to withdraw closed, appealed requests.
- Fixed issue where assignment comments would not display in assignment email notifications.
- Fixed issue where Assign All on Unassigned/My Assigned/Advanced Search pages would duplicate all the tracking numbers on the page for the total number of records.
- Fixed issue where the modal would not display while reports generated.
- Fixed issue where no results would display in the Deleted Cases Report or CSV Report.
- Fixed issue where “Agency” in Advanced Search criteria would display twice for public and registered users.
- Fixed issue of question marks displaying in all case file fields for appeals, referrals, and consultations.
- Fixed issue where an error would display on the Dispositions report when dates were not entered in a complete format.
- Fixed issue in the Year End Annual Report Section V.B.1 where the “Other” Disposition column would assume the value of the “Improper FOIA Request for Other Reasons” column.

Other Updates

- Updated Clock Days to reflect December 24, 2020 and January 20, 2021 as Federal Holidays.
- Updated the Privacy Act Statement on the Privacy and Security Notice ancillary page.

- Updated the page description text for the Agency Annual Report page to match the public description plus an added note.
